Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RecruitTrucker Launches a Modern Marketplace Connecting the Trucking Industry

First 1,000 users can post jobs and loads free

RecruitTrucker.com is introducing a modern trucking marketplace designed to bring drivers, carriers, recruiters, brokers, dispatchers and other trucking professionals into one connected platform.

Built around verified profiles, direct communication and industry-specific discovery, RecruitTrucker combines a job board and load board with professional networking tools, company pages, messaging, reviews and reputation features.

“Trucking professionals should not need a collection of disconnected, outdated tools just to find work, freight, drivers and trusted industry connections,” said Aleksandr Goretoy, founder of RecruitTrucker. “We are building RecruitTrucker as a modern operating system and marketplace for the trucking industry.”

The platform is designed to help drivers discover opportunities, carriers recruit talent, brokers and dispatchers connect around freight, and trucking businesses build trusted professional reputations.

As part of its launch promotion, the first 1,000 users can post jobs and loads free.

RecruitTrucker is available at RecruitTrucker.com.

Media inquiries, interviews, screenshots and additional information are available upon request.
